- 3- Shipping permit is addressed to the captain or to the ware- house super intendant.
- 4- The seller pays freight charges.
- 5- Shipping is carrying goods by trucks.

3.3 "Despatch of Goods"

When the seller receives the order from the buyer, he begins to prepare the goods in order to be sent to the buyer's place. The seller or his forwarding agent may do this job.

First, The forwarding agent arranges for the goods to be carried by truck or train from the seller's place to the port of departure and he obtains the way bill which is a written agreement between the carrier and the sender. This operation is called " carrying ".

The forwarding agent contacts a shipping company to fill the bill of lading which is a written agreement between the shipping company and the seller.

A shipping permit is a written order by the shipping company. It is addressed to the captain of the ship asking him to receive the goods on board and give a receipt called a mate's receipt or to the warehouse superintendent asking him to receive the goods in his warehouse and give a receipt called dock receipt .Then he pays freight charges and receives the freight note.

Second, the shipping company is responsible to carry the goods from the port of departure to the port of destination by ship. This operation is called the shipping

*Now, Look to the following example of writing a shipping permit:

This Shipping permit is addressed to the captain of the ship:

The Iraqi state shipping co.,
Iraq.

NO.56

Basra 28th .march,2004

To :- The Captain of S.S"Star".

Sir,

For the Iraqi state shipping co.

Manager

3.4 Answer the following questions:

- 1- What is a shipping permit?
- 2- To whom is it addressed?
- 3- What is the bill of lading?
- 4- What is the shipping?
- 5- What does the forwarding agent obtain?

3.5 Make out a shipping permit:

The British shipping co., London, England wrote to the Captain of S.S"Queen" asking him to receive on board 3000 cases of baby shirts from Adams & sons, London .The goods to be shipped to Basra for the account of AL-Sharqstores, Baghdad, Iraq.

3.6 Dialogue

Shipping Company

Forwarding Agent: Excuse me sir, can you help me? How do I get to the National shipping company?.

  - I saw the girl whose hair came down to her waist.
- 2- The woman was crying .Her car was crashed (whose)
  - The woman whose car was crashed was crying.

*Now, use "whose" to join each pair of sentences:-

- 1- The manager spoke to the workers .Their work was below standard.
- 2- This is the teacher .His students are very clever.
- 3- The student was shocked .His mark was very low.
- 4- The woman immediately reported the theft .Her expensive coat had been stolen.
- 5- Ibn-Sina died in 1037 .His books were taught in all European universities.

3.11 "Defining" and "Non-Defining" Relative pronouns:-

1- Defining Relative pronouns:-

They tell us which person or thing is meant.

	people	Things
1- Subject	who(that)	that (which)
2-Object	that	that
3- Possessive	whose	of which(whose)

2-Non-defining relative pronouns:-

They tell us more about a (person or thing ) that is already identified and are separated from other sentences by commas(,.....,)

	people	Things
1- Subject	, who.....,	, which.....,
2-Object	, who (whom)..,	, which.....,
3- Possessive	, whose.....,	whose.....,

Examples

1- What's the name of the tall man who just visited us?

2- His latest book, which was well reviewed by the critics, has been a great success.

3.12 Now, write "D" or "ND" to indicate whether the clause is defining or Non-defining.

- 1- The travellers who knew about the floods took another road.
- 2- The players, who wanted to play football, were disappointed when it rained.
- 3- The car, which is in the garage, was stolen.

4.3 Reading

Insurance

Insurance is defined as the equitable transfer of the risk of a loss, from one entity to another in exchange for a premium. Insurer is the company that sells the insurance. An Insured or policy holder is the person or entity that buys the insurance. Insurance-rate is a factor used to determine the amount called the premium, which is charged for a certain amount of insurance coverage. Specific kinds of risk that may give rise to claims are known as perils.

There are several types of insurance. Some of them are: auto insurance, life insurance, home insurance, property insurance, etc.

* The six principles of insurance are:

- 1- Indemnity insurance is a contract of indemnity where the insurance indemnifies the insured against certain risks.
- 2- Insurable interest means the loss which will directly affect the insured.
- 3- Utmost good faith means that the insured and the insurance company will not will fully hide anything from each other.
- 4- Mitigation means that the insured will not behave irresponsibly so that the risk of loss is minimized.
- 5- Subrogation means the insurance company acquires legal rights to act on behalf of the insured i.e. . The insurance company steps into the shoes of the insured.
- 6- Proximate cause means the proximate cause of loss to ascertain whether the loss is covered under the policy.

4.4 Now answer the following questions:

MANAGEMENT

Management in all business and human organization activity is the act of getting people together to accomplish desired goals and objectives

Management comprises planning , staffing , organizing , leading or directing and controlling an organization ( a group of one or more people or entities) or efforts for the purpose of accomplishing a goal .

Because organizations can be viewed as systems, management can also be defined as human action including design , to facilitate the production of useful outcomes from a system –This view opens the opportunity to“ manage” one’s self , a pre – request to attempting to manage others .

Management can also refer to the person or people who perform the act(s) of management.

The management of a large organization may have three levels:

- 1- Senior management (top management or upper management requires an extensive knowledge of management roles) and skills.
- 2- Middle management (Mid- level managers have a specialized under stand of certain managerial tasks).
- 3- Lower management: This level of management ensures that the decisions and plans taken by the other two are carried out
- 4- Foreman lead hand: They are people who have direct supervision over the working force in office factory, sales field or other work group or areas of activity.
- 5- Rank and file: The responsibilities of the persons belonging to this group are even More restricted.
