Introduction

Dear teachers and students,

This is Book Two of the series English for Tourism and Hotel Management. It is composed of six units. Each of the units (1, 2, 3 & 4) has four lessons whereas units (5 & 6) have three lessons for each, thus, the total number of lessons is (22). Each lesson is supposed to be taught and studied within three lesson periods, i.e. one week. Three units are to be covered in each semester.

The general aim of Book Two is to develop the learners' general and professional language skills in terms of the specific content relevant to their field of study. The topics introduced in Book Two deal with the front office, housekeeping, tourism management, food and beverage services, food production and tourism activities. Each lesson includes grammatical, meaningful and communicative practices, in which the activities are presented in a simplified way to help learners comprehend the given knowledge, and then develop their performance.

Tourism Guides

1. Dialogue

Excuse me, Sir. May I give you bits of advice?

A tour guide gives bits of advice to the tourists.
Read the following speech in front of your class and do Exercises A and B.

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

Good evening

If you need to exchange your dollars into euros, please use a bank or money exchange machines. I don't recommend exchanging your money at the hotel because you won't get a fair rate. Some restaurants accept dollars, but it's better to pay with euros. Or, if you prefer, you can always use your credit card to avoid paying tips. Also, if you want to get around the city, I recommend that you take the local bus rather than a taxi. The bus costs about one euro and the driver can give you change if you don't have the exact amount. However, if you decide to take a taxi, make sure that you negotiate a price before you go so that you will pay fair fees.

Exercise A: List the bits of advice that the tour guide offered.

Lesson One

1. Dialogue

Seating Guests

A family of six people enters a restaurant.

Read the following dialogue with a partner and do Exercises A and B.

Waiter: Welcome sir. How can I help you?

Customer: Can I have a table for six people, please?

Waiter: I'm sorry. All the large tables are reserved, but we can combine two round tables of three.

Customer: That's fine.

Waiter: Then, take your seats.

Customer: It's not very comfortable. I noticed a large family just left the restaurant, can we take their table?

Waiter: Why not, we will get the table ready immediately.

(The family takes their seats.)

Waiter: What do you like to start with?

Exercise A: Answer orally the following questions.

1. How many people entered the restaurant?
2. Was there a vacant table for six people at first?
3. Was the customer comfortable with the arrangement of the 2 round tables?
4. Was the waiter friendly and helpful?

Exercise B: Work in pairs and play the role of a waiter and a customer. Let your partner ask you the following questions and you answer them.

Seating Small Children

Read the following passage and do exercise D.

Last Friday, Rami and Linda went to a restaurant with their children to have lunch. The restaurant was a bit old, but they wanted to try it out. The restaurant had an amazing view and an interior design. The waiter was considerate enough to have brought out two baby chairs for their children, Rand and Rawan, before Rami even asked them to. Then, the waiter brought two kid menus with some toys and balloons. The children could barely decide what to eat because there were so many food options. While waiting for their order, Rawan's high chair broke and she almost fell. The waiter immediately apologized and brought a new baby chair. After the family finished eating and drinking, the restaurant manager informed them that the kid's meals were free due to the broken baby chair.

3. Reading

Ordering Appetizers

(Ahmed was telling his mother about his experience in trying a new restaurant.)

Read the following passage and do Exercise C.

Yesterday my sister Reem and I tried a new restaurant, but I was worried that it would be expensive because it looked so fancy. Once we were seated, the waiter brought us a menu just for appetizers. The menu contained all kinds of appetizers, French fries, onion rings, and soups; you could also order your own salad. Once we read the menu, we ordered the green salad and some French fries. We were so full after the appetizers were finished that we weren't sure if we wanted a main course.

Nevertheless, we decided to take two small beef burgers. When the burgers arrived, we were shocked at how small they were, so we ate them. Finally, we were so full that we couldn't even order desserts. The prices weren't that expensive, and my sister was really happy that we spent some time together.

Appetizers

Beef Burger

Exercise C: Circle the correct answer.

1. Ahmed was/wasn't worried that the restaurant was going to be expensive.

Ordering Chicken

Read the following passage and do Exercises C and D.

Nisreen and Shireen entered a restaurant in Istanbul. The restaurant was mainly known for its delicious chicken. The waiter welcomed them in and gave them the menu. They had a bit of trouble communicating with the waiter, but they have learned a bit of Turkish so the situation was under control. They told the waiter that they wanted chicken with rice. The waiter asked them if they wanted their chicken grilled or fried. They ordered the grilled chicken since they were both on a diet and fried chicken isn't really healthy. They also ordered two large bowls of salad. Once their food arrived, the chicken looked really delicious. They finished their salad and then started with the main course. They were very happy with their meal. After the waiter picked up the dishes and cleaned the table, he asked if they wanted any dessert. So, they asked if there were any healthy options. The waiter replied that there weren't any, but there is a new sweet shop across the street that sells really delicious and healthy sweets. Nisreen and Shireen were really thankful to the waiter, so they gave him a large tip and wished him a good day.

Exercise C: Answer the questions according to the text above.

1. Where was the restaurant that Nisreen and Shireen went to?

5. Grammar

Adverbs (Part 1)

Remember:

An adverb is a word which describes the status of a verb, an adjective, or another adverb and it usually answers the questions; How? When? Where? How often? and In what way?

The figure below illustrates how to recognize an adverb.

Types of Adverbs

In English, there are six main types of adverbs, namely: manner, place, time, frequency, degree, evaluation, and conjunctive, as shown in the figure below.

Adverbs of Manner (2)

Here are the cases of forming adverbs of manner with examples. Read and do Exercises F and E.

ADVERBS OF MANNER

ENGLISH GRAMMAR

 An adverb of manner is an adverb (such as strongly or slowly) that describes how and in what way the action of a verb is carried out.

FORMING ADVERBS FROM ADJECTIVES:

- In a large number of the cases, the adverb can be formed by simply adding '-ly' to the adjective.

ADJECTIVE	ADVERB
Cheap	Cheaply
Quick	Quickly
Strong	Strongly
- If the adjective ends in with 'y', replace the 'y' with an 'i' and add '-ly'.

ADJECTIVE	ADVERB
Ready	Readily
Merry	Merrily
Easy	Easily
- If the adjective ends with '-le', replace the 'e' at the end with 'y'.

ADJECTIVE	ADVERB
Understandable	Understandably
Forcible	Forcibly
Possible	Possibly
- If the adjective ends with '-ic', add '-ally'.
An exception: public -> publicly

ADJECTIVE	ADVERB
Idiotic	Idiotically
Tragic	Tragically
Basic	Basically
- Some adjectives do not change form at all.

ADJECTIVE	ADVERB
Fast	Fast
Straight	Straight
Hard	Hard
- In a large number of the cases, the adverb can be formed by simply adding '-ly' to the adjective.

Exercise F: Fill in each blank with the suitable adverb of manner between brackets.

(quickly, happily, carefully, regularly, silently, well, badly)

1. The thief walked in the house, so he was not noticed by anybody.
2. When Mahmood saw the dog, he started running very
3. Rand has just heard some news. She is smiling
4. Ahmed fell off a tall tree, so he hurt his leg
5. The weather was rainy, so he drove his car
6. I know her She cannot be a liar.
7. Hala does her homework, so her teacher always praises her.

Exercise G: Match the adverb in the first row with its opposite meaning.

- | | |
|------------|----------------|
| a. Gladly | 1. Expensively |
| b. Easily | 2. Slowly |
| c. Cheaply | 3. Hardly |
| d. Quickly | 4. Sadly |

Khadeeja: I'm not really sure; I think I want chicken nuggets.

Rawan: I really like their nuggets; they crisp them very well.

Khadeeja: Yes, they do. Let's eat.

Lunch Lady: Good evening, today we have got chicken with rice for lunch and chocolate cake for dessert.

Khadeeja: Wait. I thought we had chicken nuggets here before.

Lunch Lady: No, you're mistaken. We won't serve chicken nuggets until next week.

Rawan: Oh.... it's okay, but can you please make the chicken grilled, not boiled? I don't like the taste of boiled chicken.

Khadeeja: And can I have a fried chicken, please?

Lunch Lady: Of course, but it will cost you a bit extra. Is that all you want for today?

Rawan: Yes, thank you.

Khadeeja: Can I also have this piece of chocolate cake, please?

Lunch Lady: Coming right up...

Exercise A: Answer the following questions with information from the dialogue.

1. What did Khadeeja like to have for lunch?

Healthcare Services

Remember:

Some hotel guests may need healthcare services.

Read the following passage and:

- Say how the hotel manager can help the guest.
- Do Exercises B and C.

A hotel guest named Abdullah had just undergone a surgery in a hospital. The procedure was complicated and dangerous. The recovery time was approximately seven weeks. Abdullah had to stay in the hospital for four days so he could be monitored by the doctors. During his 4-day stay in the hospital, his food would be customized according to his own needs. The doctor told him he won't be able to have any fat or carbohydrates like butter, fries, or any junk food. He is also not allowed to eat big meals and instead opts for smaller meals throughout the day, and the food should be nutritious with protein. This diet wasn't hard to follow as, after surgery, patients usually don't have an appetite to eat. After four days at the hospital, Abdullah returned to the hotel where he could spend a couple of weeks for recovery. He needed to lose weight by eating healthy food for the last couple of weeks. This inspired him to start a healthy lifestyle, quit eating junk food and start exercising. By the help of the hotel manager, he recovered much faster than the doctors had hoped for.

Exercise B: Fill in the blanks with information from the passage.

4. Pronunciation

The /l/ sound

Remember:

The /l/ sound varies significantly based on its position in the word.
There are two kinds of the /l/ sound; light and dark.

- Light /l/: when the letter (l) comes before the vowel or at the beginning, as in:

{love, light, life, language}.

- Dark /l/: when the letter (l) comes after the vowel or at the end, as in:

{ball, hall, able, hill}

In some cases, when (l) comes between a vowel and consonant, it will not pronounce and is called silent l, as in:

{talk, half, should chalk, psalm}.

Exercise D: Put the following words under the suitable column.

(life, Albert, culture, family, calf, monkey, black, illustrate, palm, ugly, Wales, spleen, plumber, field, literature, golf, comb, legitimate, helmet, could, life, and phoneme)

“This is my kitchen”, Elizabeth said.

Read the following passage and do Exercises D.

I like to keep my kitchen clean and tidy. I changed the interior design of my kitchen six months ago. I hired an interior designer who made a new appearance to my kitchen.

It has white cabinets with two double doors. I prefer keeping bowls, cups, saucers, dishes and other utensils in the cabinet on one side, and spices, tea, sugar on the other side in big boxes. The sink is on the left hand side of the cabinets. I usually put the dirty dishes after having lunch in the sink. At the bottom of the cabinets, there are small cabinets where the trays and cutting boards are stored. There are four drawers next to it where I store my cutlery, utensils and tablecloth. On the top, there are four small open cabinets where lots of glasses are kept for different drinks. To the left of the bottom cabinets, there are couples of cabinets to store the frying pans, tea pans, colanders and the griddles.

How can Jessica manage a tour package

Read Jessica's lesson and do Exercise B.

When you decide to start a tour business, you will need to know everything about your job. Base your ideas on the tourists' interests and on others' experiences.

You have to take into account the duration, departure times and tour frequency in order to make sure that your trips will be sustainable and profitable.

List the activities that you'd like to include in the tour package. Give the guests a map so that they can feel independent.

You can offer group discounts in order to encourage people to book in groups.

Be sure to include photos and videos to help sell your tour packages. In addition, encourage web visitors to read reviews of your tours. It's important to partner with tour operators who can offer complimentary activities. For example, if you operate a boat trip, you can connect with a local boat operator to see if he can offer guided tours.

Use the language that attracts people and asks for feedback in order to make your offers better.

Exercise B: Answer the following questions with information from Jessica’s passage.
